

A In Frederick County.

Q Are you still the owner of that property?

A That's right.

Q Is your husband still living?

A No.

Q When did he die?

A August 27, 1977.

FOR THE RECORD, I WOULD NOTE THAT WHAT HAS BEEN MARKED AS EXHIBIT I FOR PURPOSES OF TESTIMONY IS ALSO EXHIBIT I WHICH WAS FILED WITH THE ORIGINAL PLEADINGS IN THIS CASE.

Q Now, I hand you what has been marked as Exhibit II. Calling your attention to this document, can you tell us what that document is?

A Well, Mr. Hoe - when he sold us the place Mr. James Murray had a mortgage of $3,000.00 on the place.

Q Let's back up just a little bit. This document is-- is this your signature on the document?

A Yes.

Q Is this your husband's signature?

A That's right.

Q Is this not a Promissory Note from you and your husband to Mr. Hoe and Laura Jane Hoe to pay them the sum of $3,000.00?

A Yes it is.

Q Now, if you will notice at the bottom, this is also an Assignment from Wilfred Hoe and Laura Jane Hoe to Mr. James B. Murray, is it not?

A That's right.

Q What is the date on that please?

A May 5, 1951.

Q Which is also the same date at the deed was executed, is it not?

A Yes sir, the same date.

Q Now, I show you a copy of a document labeled Exhibit III. Would that appear to be the mortgage that was executed in connection with the Promissory Note that we were just talking about?

A $3,000.00, Yes.
